News from the headteacher

School reports and online test data is going home with your children tonight. We will provide information from the other National Tests early next week.

Last Friday's Summer Fayre was a huge success. Many thanks to all the members of the PTFA who organised the many events. We are still counting the money, which will be used, as ever, for the benefit of the children.

All children in Bl. 6 spent 4 days at their High Schools this week. This has helped them in anticipation of their move to secondary education in September. They now know which form they are in, and know more of the teaching staff who will be working with them. They are also now much more familiar with the surroundings of the school, classrooms, hall, toilets etc. This is so important before Day 1 in Year 7.

Children in Ysgol Cynfran had their Moving Up Day this week too. All children went to their new classes. This was another opportunity for children to express what they would like to learn more about next year. The children are responding so positively to being invited to offer their ideas in topic planning.

All teaching staff in Foundation Phase classes continue to be the same as in this year. In Juniors, Mrs Claire Jones will be teaching Bl. 3 as Mrs Davies will be attending a one year Welsh language sabbatical. Mrs Williams continues in Bl. 4 and as the school's Additional Learning Needs Co-ordinator. She will be supported by Miss Boulton. Mrs Hughes is teaching Bl. 5 and continues in her role as Deputy Headteacher. Mr Williams will be teaching Bl. 6.

Issue 36

Friday 5th July 2019

Mrs Hughes attended a training course this week.

The fruits of their labours were harvested this week by Bl. 1. They went into the kitchen and Gemma helped them prepare and cook the vegetables.

Our newly purchased Basketball hoops were assembled by the construction team in Bl. 5.

Such is the interest in their topics, children are regularly going above and beyond with their homework. Here Zack went to find out about what Tesco are doing to reduce plastic and other waste. They told him about plans they have to introduce biodegradable plastic bags and gave him a tour of their recycling sorting room. He approved.

Some of our new parents attended a briefing for next year's Nursery intake this week.

Please contact Mrs Jones in Dosbarth Meithrin if you have any questions.

After school club snack time.
